

JPMorgan Chase Paid Leave Policies

Policy Document for U.S. Employees

Parental Leave | Critical Caregiver Leave | Sick Time | Bereavement Leave

Effective Date: January 1, 2025

Executive Summary

JPMorgan Chase provides comprehensive paid leave benefits to support employees during significant life events and personal challenges. This policy document outlines the firm's paid leave programs effective January 1, 2025, including Parental Leave (16 weeks for all new parents), Critical Caregiver Leave (up to 4 weeks for serious family illness), Sick Time (up to 10 days annually), and Bereavement Leave (up to 20 days for immediate family loss). These policies reflect the firm's commitment to work-life balance, family support, and employee well-being[1][2].

Section 1: Parental Leave Policy

1.1 Policy Overview

JPMorgan Chase provides 16 weeks of fully paid parental leave to all eligible employees for the birth or placement of a child for adoption. This gender-neutral policy applies equally to all parents regardless of gender, marital status, or caregiver role[1][2][3].

Key Policy Features:

- 16 continuous workweeks of paid leave for all parents
- Available for birth, adoption, or surrogacy placement
- Gender-neutral application (no "primary" vs. "secondary" caregiver distinction)
- 12-month window to use leave following birth or placement
- Full salary continuation during leave period
- Job-protected leave under applicable law

1.2 Eligibility Requirements

Employee Eligibility:

To qualify for Parental Leave, employees must:

- Be actively employed by JPMorgan Chase on a U.S. payroll
- Be regularly scheduled to work 20 or more hours per week
- Have benefits-eligible status (not temporary, seasonal, or contingent)
- Experience a qualifying event (birth, adoption, or surrogacy placement)

New hires are eligible for Parental Leave immediately upon meeting benefits eligibility requirements.

Qualifying Events:

Parental Leave is available for:

- Birth: The birth of an employee's biological child
- Adoption: The placement of a child with the employee for legal adoption
- Surrogacy: The placement of a child born via surrogacy arrangement
- Foster Care to Adopt: Placement of a foster child when employee intends to adopt

1.3 Leave Duration and Timing

Duration:

- All eligible employees receive up to 16 continuous workweeks of paid leave
- One workweek equals five scheduled workdays
- Part-time employees receive leave proportional to their scheduled hours

Timing and Flexibility:

- Leave may begin at any time within 12 months of birth or placement
- Leave must be taken continuously (cannot be used in separate increments)
- Employees may choose when to start leave within the 12-month window
- For birth, leave typically begins on or after the child's birth date
- For adoption/surrogacy, leave typically begins on or after placement date

12-Month Window:

Employees have 12 months from the date of birth or placement for adoption to complete their 16 weeks of Parental Leave. This flexibility allows families to determine the optimal timing based on their circumstances.

1.4 Parental Leave for Multiple Parents

Both Parents Employed by JPMorgan Chase:

When both parents work for JPMorgan Chase and experience the same qualifying event:

- Each parent is eligible for the full 16 weeks of Parental Leave
- Leave may be taken concurrently or consecutively
- Each parent may independently choose timing within the 12-month window
- Combined leave provides up to 32 weeks of parental coverage

Multiple Births or Placements:

- 16 weeks of leave applies per birth or placement event
- Twins, triplets, or other multiple births count as a single event
- Simultaneous adoption of multiple children counts as a single placement

1.5 Compensation During Parental Leave

Salary Continuation:

- Employees receive 100% of base salary during Parental Leave
- Regular payroll schedule continues during leave period
- Benefits continue without interruption
- Leave does not count against other paid time off balances (vacation, personal days)

Benefits Continuation:

During Parental Leave, the following continue without change:

- Medical, dental, and vision coverage
- Life and disability insurance
- 401(k) matching and automatic pay credits (subject to compensation received)
- Benefit accruals and service credit
- Employee perks and discounts

1.6 Interaction with Other Leave Policies

Coordination with Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA):

Parental Leave runs concurrently with FMLA leave when the employee is FMLA-eligible:

- FMLA provides job protection for up to 12 weeks
- JPMorgan Chase Parental Leave provides 16 weeks of paid leave
- First 12 weeks satisfy FMLA requirements (for eligible employees)
- Remaining 4 weeks are job-protected under JPMorgan Chase policy

Coordination with State Paid Family Leave Programs:

In states with statutory paid family leave programs (e.g., California, New Jersey, New York, Washington):

- JPMorgan Chase Parental Leave provides full salary continuation
- State benefits may be offset or coordinated
- Employees receive no less than 100% of salary through combination of benefits
- Human Resources provides guidance on state-specific coordination

Coordination with Short-Term Disability:

For childbirth, employees may be eligible for Short-Term Disability leave for medical recovery:

- Short-Term Disability covers medical recovery from childbirth (typically 6-8 weeks)
- Runs concurrently with Parental Leave
- Employee receives 100% salary (no stacking of benefits)
- After disability period ends, remaining Parental Leave continues

1.7 Notice and Documentation Requirements

Advance Notice:

Employees should provide advance notice of Parental Leave when reasonably possible:

- Recommended Notice: 30 days before anticipated leave start date
- For Birth: As soon as practicable after learning of pregnancy
- For Adoption/Surrogacy: As soon as placement date is known
- Emergency Situations: Notice as soon as possible

Required Documentation:

JPMorgan Chase may request documentation to verify the qualifying event:

- Birth certificate or hospital documentation
- Adoption decree or placement paperwork
- Surrogacy agreement or placement confirmation

Documentation should be submitted to Human Resources within a reasonable timeframe.

1.8 Returning from Parental Leave

Return to Work:

- Employees return to same or equivalent position following leave
- Same compensation, benefits, and terms of employment
- Seniority and service credit continue to accrue during leave
- No adverse employment action based on taking leave

Failure to Return:

If an employee does not return to work following Parental Leave:

- Employment may be terminated
- Firm may seek repayment of benefits paid during leave (in certain circumstances)
- Health insurance coverage transitions to COBRA

Extension of Leave:

If additional time is needed beyond 16 weeks:

- Employees may request unpaid Personal Leave (up to 26 weeks)
- FMLA may provide additional job protection (if not exhausted)
- State laws may provide additional leave rights
- Discuss options with Human Resources before leave expiration

1.9 Additional Parental Support Programs

JPMorgan Chase offers comprehensive support for new and expecting parents beyond Parental Leave:

parents@jpmc Program:

- Resources for working parents

- Educational webinars and programming
- Guidance on balancing work and family responsibilities
- Access at parents@jpmc portal

SNOO Infant Smart Sleeper Bassinet:

- Free 5-month rental of SNOO bassinet for newborn-eligible dependents
- $99 refundable security deposit
- Supports infant sleep and parental rest

Lactation Support:

- 24/7 access to board-certified lactation consultants
- On-site lactation rooms at many JPMorgan Chase locations
- Free breastfeeding kit and educational materials
- Milk shipping services during business travel
- Discounted breast pumps and supplies

Maternity Support:

- Health assessments and educational materials
- Maternity nurse support throughout pregnancy
- Available through medical plan (Aetna, Cigna, Kaiser HMO)

Family Building Assistance:

- Fertility medical services (lifetime maximum $35,000)
- Prescription drug coverage for fertility (lifetime maximum $15,000)
- Adoption and surrogacy benefits (combined lifetime maximum $50,000)

Child Care and Tutoring:

- Backup child care through Bright Horizons network
- 14 JPMC-dedicated or near-site child care centers
- Enhanced Family Support Program for sourcing caregivers
- College Coach services for educational planning

1.10 Policy History and Legal Context

Policy Evolution:

JPMorgan Chase significantly enhanced its Parental Leave policy effective January 1, 2023:

- Pre-2023 Policy: 16 weeks for "primary caregivers," 6 weeks for "non-primary caregivers"
- 2023 Enhancement: 16 weeks for all parents regardless of caregiver role
- Rationale: Eliminate gender bias, support all parents equally, recognize both parents as primary caregivers

Legal Settlement Background:

In 2019, JPMorgan Chase settled a class-action lawsuit for $5 million over allegations that its previous parental leave policy discriminated against male employees by limiting fathers to 2 weeks of leave (later 6 weeks) while mothers received 16 weeks as "primary caregivers"[4] [5].

Settlement Terms:

- Compensation for approximately 5,000 fathers denied equal leave (2011-2017)
- Gender-neutral policy clarification
- Training for HR staff on non-discriminatory administration
- Elimination of "primary" vs. "secondary" caregiver distinction

Current Policy Compliance:

The current 16-week policy for all parents:

- Complies with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act (prohibits sex discrimination)
- Exceeds FMLA requirements (12 weeks unpaid)
- Aligns with industry-leading practices
- Recognizes evolving family structures and caregiving roles

Section 2: Critical Caregiver Leave Policy

2.1 Policy Overview

JPMorgan Chase provides up to 4 continuous workweeks of paid Critical Caregiver Leave to eligible employees who need to care for a spouse, domestic partner, child, or parent experiencing a serious health event, illness, or injury[1][2].

Key Policy Features:

- Up to 4 continuous workweeks (20 workdays) of paid leave
- Full salary continuation during leave period
- Available for serious health events affecting immediate family members
- Must be used continuously (cannot be used in increments)
- Job-protected leave

2.2 Eligibility Requirements

Employee Eligibility:

To qualify for Critical Caregiver Leave, employees must:

- Be actively employed by JPMorgan Chase on a U.S. payroll
- Be regularly scheduled to work 20 or more hours per week
- Have benefits-eligible status
- Need to provide care for an eligible family member with a serious health condition

Eligible Family Members:

Critical Caregiver Leave is available to care for:

- Spouse or Domestic Partner
- Child (biological, adopted, stepchild, foster child, or legal ward)
- Parent (biological, adoptive, stepparent, or legal guardian)

2.3 Qualifying Serious Health Conditions

Serious Health Event, Illness, or Injury:

Critical Caregiver Leave applies when a family member experiences a serious health condition requiring active caregiving, such as:

- Major surgery or medical procedure
- Hospitalization
- Serious illness requiring treatment and recovery
- Significant injury requiring care and assistance
- Chronic or terminal illness requiring intensive care period
- Mental health crisis requiring immediate care and support

Medical Certification:

JPMorgan Chase may require medical certification from a healthcare provider documenting:

- Nature of the serious health condition
- Expected duration of need for care
- Confirmation that employee's presence is necessary to provide care

2.4 Leave Duration and Usage

Duration:

- Up to 4 continuous workweeks (20 workdays for full-time employees)
- One workweek equals five scheduled workdays
- Part-time employees receive leave proportional to scheduled hours

Continuous Use Requirement:

- Leave must be taken continuously (all at once)
- Cannot be divided into separate increments or intermittent days
- Cannot be combined with other forms of leave (e.g., vacation) to extend duration

Frequency:

- Policy does not specify annual limit on number of Critical Caregiver Leave events
- Each serious health event for an eligible family member may qualify
- Human Resources should be consulted for multiple requests in a calendar year

2.5 Compensation During Critical Caregiver Leave

Salary Continuation:

- Employees receive 100% of base salary during Critical Caregiver Leave
- Regular payroll schedule continues
- Leave does not count against vacation, personal days, or sick time

Benefits Continuation:

- Medical, dental, and vision coverage continue
- Life and disability insurance continue

- 401(k) matching and automatic pay credits continue (subject to compensation received)
- All benefit accruals and service credit continue

2.6 Interaction with Other Leave Policies

Coordination with Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA):

Critical Caregiver Leave runs concurrently with FMLA when the employee is FMLA-eligible and the family member's condition qualifies:

- FMLA provides up to 12 weeks of job-protected leave to care for spouse, child, or parent with serious health condition
- FMLA provides up to 26 weeks to care for covered military service member
- Critical Caregiver Leave provides 4 weeks of paid leave
- FMLA time is satisfied during Critical Caregiver Leave period
- Additional FMLA time (if available) would be unpaid

Coordination with State Paid Family Leave:

In states with paid family leave programs, benefits may coordinate:

- JPMorgan Chase provides full salary during Critical Caregiver Leave
- State benefits may be offset or run concurrently
- Employee receives no less than 100% salary

Coordination with Personal Leave:

If additional time is needed beyond 4 weeks:

- Employees may request unpaid Personal Leave (up to 26 weeks)
- FMLA may provide job protection for additional time (if not exhausted)
- Discuss extension needs with Human Resources

2.7 Notice and Documentation Requirements

Advance Notice:

- Provide notice as soon as practicable when need for leave is foreseeable
- For planned medical procedures: 30 days advance notice recommended
- For emergency situations: Notify supervisor and Human Resources as soon as possible

Required Documentation:

JPMorgan Chase requires medical certification documenting:

- Family member's serious health condition
- Expected duration of condition
- Need for employee to provide care
- Healthcare provider signature and contact information

Submit documentation to Human Resources within a reasonable timeframe (typically within 15 days of leave request).

2.8 Returning from Critical Caregiver Leave

Return to Work:

- Employees return to same or equivalent position
- Same compensation, benefits, and terms of employment
- No adverse employment action for taking leave

Need for Additional Leave:

If family member's condition requires ongoing care beyond 4 weeks:

- Request unpaid Personal Leave or additional FMLA time
- Provide updated medical certification
- Discuss options with Human Resources before Critical Caregiver Leave expires

2.9 Additional Caregiver Support Resources

LifeCare Services:

- Free specialist support for elder care and caregiving resources
- In-home assessments and customized care plans
- Referrals to qualified service providers
- Available 24/7 at 877-576-2007

Employee Assistance Program (EAP):

- Confidential counseling and support
- Eight free therapy sessions per year
- Caregiver stress management resources
- Crisis support available 24/7

Health Advocate:

- Navigation assistance for complex healthcare situations
- Help finding providers and scheduling appointments
- Claims support and coordination

Section 3: Sick Time Policy

3.1 Policy Overview

JPMorgan Chase provides paid sick time to allow employees to recover from illness or injury, attend medical appointments, and care for sick family members[1][2].

Key Policy Features:

- Full-time employees: Up to 10 sick days (80 hours) per year
- Part-time employees: Accrued sick time up to 96 hours maximum
- Unused sick time does not carry over year-to-year
- No payout of unused sick time upon termination
- Available for employee's own illness or to care for eligible family members

3.2 Eligibility and Allocation

Full-Time Employees:

- Regularly scheduled to work 30+ hours per week
- Receive 10 sick days (80 hours) on January 1 of each year
- New hires receive prorated allocation based on hire date
- Allocation refreshes annually (no carryover from previous year)

Part-Time Employees:

- Regularly scheduled to work 20-29 hours per week
- Earn sick time through accrual process based on hours worked
- Maximum accrual cap: 96 hours at any time
- Accrual rates vary based on state/local requirements

New Hire Allocation:

Hire Date	Sick Days Allocated (Full-Time)
January 1 - March 31	10 days
April 1 - June 30	7.5 days
July 1 - September 30	5 days
October 1 - December 31	2.5 days

Table 1: Prorated sick time allocation for new hires

3.3 Permitted Uses of Sick Time

Employee's Own Health:

Sick time may be used for:

- Illness or injury preventing work
- Medical, dental, or vision appointments
- Mental health appointments and treatment
- Preventive care and routine check-ups
- Recovery from medical procedures
- Pregnancy-related medical appointments and conditions

Family Care:

Sick time may be used to care for eligible family members:

- Spouse or domestic partner
- Children (biological, adopted, step, foster)
- Parents or legal guardians
- Other family members as permitted by state/local law

Other Permitted Uses:

- Seeking medical attention related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking
- Attending legal proceedings related to such situations

- Other uses required by applicable state or local sick leave laws

3.4 Notification Requirements

Advance Notice:

- Notify supervisor as soon as practicable when sick time is needed
- For planned medical appointments: Provide advance notice when possible
- For unexpected illness: Notify supervisor before scheduled start time or as soon as reasonably possible

Documentation:

- JPMorgan Chase may request medical documentation for absences exceeding 3 consecutive days
- Documentation may include healthcare provider note confirming need for absence
- Reasonable documentation requirements apply consistent with state/local law

3.5 Sick Time Administration

Minimum Increments:

- Sick time may be used in minimum increments of 1 hour
- Employees report sick time usage through timekeeping systems

No Carryover:

- Unused sick time does not carry over to the following year
- New allocation provided January 1 (full-time) or continues to accrue (part-time)
- Exception: State or local laws may require carryover (e.g., California, New York City)

No Payout:

- Unused sick time is not paid out upon termination of employment
- No cash value or conversion to other paid time off

State and Local Law Compliance:

JPMorgan Chase sick time policy complies with applicable state and local sick leave laws. In locations with more generous requirements, the law prevails. Consult Human Resources for state-specific provisions.

3.6 Interaction with Other Leave Policies

Coordination with Short-Term Disability:

For extended illness or injury:

- Short-Term Disability (STD) provides coverage after 14-day elimination period
- Employees may use sick time during elimination period
- STD provides partial or full salary replacement for up to 26 weeks (based on tenure)

Coordination with FMLA:

- Sick time may run concurrently with FMLA when condition qualifies

- Sick time provides paid leave; FMLA provides job protection

Relationship to Parental Leave and Critical Caregiver Leave:

- Parental Leave and Critical Caregiver Leave are separate paid leave benefits
- Sick time is not deducted when using Parental Leave or Critical Caregiver Leave
- Sick time may be used for pregnancy-related medical conditions before/after Parental Leave

3.7 Wellness and Preventive Care

JPMorgan Chase encourages employees to use sick time for preventive care and wellness:

Preventive Care Services:

- Annual physical exams
- Wellness screenings and biometric testing
- Immunizations and vaccinations (including flu shots)
- Cancer screenings (mammograms, colonoscopies, etc.)
- Mental health check-ins and preventive counseling

Note: Many preventive services are available at no cost through the medical plan when using in-network providers.

Section 4: Bereavement Leave Policy

4.1 Policy Overview

JPMorgan Chase provides paid bereavement leave to support employees experiencing the death of a family member[1][2].

Key Policy Features:

- Immediate Family: Up to 20 continuous workdays for death of spouse/domestic partner, child, or in cases of miscarriage/stillbirth
- Extended Family: Five consecutive workdays for death of other covered family members
- Fully paid leave at 100% salary
- Job-protected time off
- Compassionate support and flexibility

4.2 Bereavement Leave Entitlements

Immediate Family Members (20 Days):

Employees receive up to 20 continuous workdays of paid bereavement leave for the death of:

- Spouse or Domestic Partner
- Child (including biological, adopted, step, foster, or legal ward)
- Miscarriage or Stillbirth (loss of pregnancy)

Extended Family Members (5 Days):

Employees receive five consecutive workdays of paid bereavement leave for the death of:

- Parent (including biological, adoptive, step, or in-law)
- Sibling (including biological, adoptive, step, or in-law)
- Grandparent (including employee's grandparent or spouse's grandparent)
- Grandchild
- Other family members as defined by policy

4.3 Timing and Usage

Immediate Family (20 Days):

- Up to 20 continuous workdays of paid leave
- Continuous means consecutive workdays (excludes weekends and holidays unless scheduled to work)
- Leave typically begins on or shortly after date of death
- Flexibility provided for timing around funeral/memorial services

Extended Family (5 Days):

- Five consecutive workdays of paid leave
- Typically begins on date of death or date of notification
- May be used to attend funeral/memorial service and manage related matters

Additional Considerations:

- Leave must be used within a reasonable timeframe following the death
- Flexibility provided for delayed memorial services or travel requirements
- Cultural and religious observances accommodated when possible

4.4 Compensation During Bereavement Leave

Salary Continuation:

- 100% of base salary paid during bereavement leave
- Regular payroll schedule continues
- Leave does not count against vacation, personal days, or sick time

Benefits Continuation:

- All health and insurance benefits continue without interruption
- Service credit and benefit accruals continue

4.5 Notification Requirements

Notifying Your Manager:

- Notify supervisor as soon as reasonably possible following the death
- No specific documentation required at time of notification
- Human Resources should be informed to process leave

Documentation:

JPMorgan Chase may request documentation to verify the death and relationship, such as:

- Death certificate
- Obituary or funeral program
- Other reasonable verification of death and family relationship

Documentation requirements are handled with sensitivity and compassion.

4.6 Additional Time Off

Need for Extended Time:

If additional time beyond bereavement leave is needed:

- Employees may use vacation or personal days
- Unpaid Personal Leave may be requested (up to 26 weeks)
- FMLA may apply in certain situations (e.g., serious health condition resulting from grief)
- Discuss needs with manager and Human Resources

Flexibility and Compassion:

JPMorgan Chase recognizes that grieving is highly individual. Managers and Human Resources work with employees to provide:

- Flexible work arrangements upon return
- Phased return-to-work schedules
- Referral to Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for grief counseling
- Additional accommodations as appropriate

4.7 Support Resources

Employee Assistance Program (EAP):

- Confidential grief counseling services
- Eight free therapy sessions per year
- 24/7 crisis support line: 877-576-2007
- Access through Spring Health platform

Spring Health Mental Health Services:

- Specialized grief and bereavement counseling

- Support navigating benefits and insurance claims
- Practical assistance during difficult time

Manager and HR Support:

- Compassionate leave administration
- Flexibility with work schedules and responsibilities

- Connection to resources and support services
- Ongoing check-ins and support upon return to work

4.8 Miscarriage and Stillbirth Support

JPMorgan Chase recognizes pregnancy loss as a significant bereavement event:

Coverage:

- Miscarriage at any stage of pregnancy qualifies for 20 days bereavement leave
- Stillbirth (death of baby at or after 20 weeks gestation) qualifies for 20 days bereavement leave
- Available to both parents if both employed by JPMorgan Chase

Additional Medical Support:

- Medical care covered under health plan
- Short-Term Disability may apply for physical recovery
- Mental health support through EAP and medical plan
- Lactation support for suppression if needed

Compassionate Administration:

- Sensitive handling of leave requests
- Privacy and confidentiality respected
- No requirement to share details beyond necessary verification
- Support for both birthing and non-birthing partners

Section 5: Leave Administration and Compliance

5.1 Requesting Leave

General Process:

1. Notify supervisor of need for leave as soon as practicable
2. Contact Human Resources or Benefits Service Center
3. Complete required leave request forms and documentation
4. Await approval confirmation
5. Coordinate transition of work responsibilities

Leave Management System:

Leave requests are managed through JPMorgan Chase's leave management system and third-party administrators:

- Online leave request portal
- Telephone support through Benefits Service Center: 1-844-ASK-JPMC (1-844-275-5762)
- Dedicated leave administrators for complex situations

5.2 Manager Responsibilities

Supporting Employees:

Managers are expected to:

- Respond supportively and compassionately to leave requests
- Facilitate smooth leave transitions
- Maintain confidentiality regarding employee's private matters
- Coordinate with Human Resources on leave administration
- Welcome employee back and provide re-entry support
- Ensure no adverse employment action based on leave usage

Non-Retaliation:

- Employees cannot be penalized for using entitled leave benefits
- Performance evaluations must not consider authorized leave usage
- Leave usage cannot factor into promotion, compensation, or termination decisions

5.3 State and Local Law Compliance

Varying Requirements:

State and local laws may provide additional leave rights or requirements:

- California: Paid sick leave, California Family Rights Act (CFRA)
- New York: Paid Family Leave, New York City Earned Safe and Sick Time
- New Jersey: New Jersey Family Leave Act, Temporary Disability Insurance
- Washington: Washington Paid Family and Medical Leave
- Other states and municipalities with specific requirements

Most Generous Provision Applies:

When JPMorgan Chase policy and state/local law differ, the provision most favorable to the employee applies.

Compliance Support:

- Human Resources provides state-specific guidance
- Leave administrators trained on multi-jurisdictional requirements
- Employees should consult HR for state-specific benefits and rights

5.4 Privacy and Confidentiality

Protected Information:

All leave-related information is confidential and protected:

- Medical information related to leave requests
- Family circumstances and personal matters
- Pregnancy, fertility, and reproductive health information
- Mental health and substance abuse treatment

HIPAA and ADA Compliance:

- Medical documentation stored securely and separately from personnel files
- Access limited to authorized leave administrators and HR personnel
- Information shared only on need-to-know basis
- Compliance with Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)
- Compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) confidentiality requirements

Employee Rights:

- Right to privacy regarding health and family matters
- Right to access own leave records
- Right to correct inaccuracies in leave documentation

5.5 Fraud Prevention and Policy Abuse

Good Faith Use:

Leave benefits are provided in good faith for legitimate purposes. Employees are expected to:

- Use leave only for stated purposes
- Provide truthful and accurate information
- Submit genuine documentation when required

Consequences of Misuse:

Fraudulent use of leave benefits may result in:

- Denial of leave request
- Recoupment of paid leave benefits
- Disciplinary action up to and including termination
- Legal action in cases of fraud

5.6 Return-to-Work Process

General Return Process:

1. Confirm return date with supervisor and Human Resources
2. Complete any required return-to-work documentation
3. Attend re-entry meetings or orientations if applicable
4. Resume duties in same or equivalent position

Work Transition Support:

- Gradual return schedules may be available in certain circumstances
- Flexible work arrangements may be discussed
- Reasonable accommodations provided if needed (e.g., lactation breaks, modified duties)

Benefits Upon Return:

- All benefits continue without interruption
 - Accruals and service credit updated
 - No loss of seniority or standing

8.5 Policy Interpretation

Questions regarding interpretation or application of leave policies should be directed to Human Resources or the Benefits Service Center. JPMorgan Chase retains discretion in administering policies and resolving ambiguities.

Conclusion

JPMorgan Chase's comprehensive paid leave policies demonstrate the firm's commitment to supporting employees through life's most significant moments and challenges. The 2025 benefits include industry-leading parental leave (16 weeks for all parents), compassionate bereavement support (up to 20 days), critical caregiver assistance (4 weeks), and robust sick time (10 days annually).

These policies, combined with extensive support resources such as the Employee Assistance Program, LifeCare services, and parents@jpmc programming, create a holistic approach to employee well-being and work-life balance. Employees are encouraged to utilize these benefits fully and to contact Human Resources or the Benefits Service Center with any questions.
